Mangia bene!

The Mamma Mia family story . . .

Over 21 years ago, our doors were first opened for business by our father and mother, Domenico and Fleda Pugliese. Many of the recipes were tried-and-true Italian Classics, along with some of the best New York style pizza around. Our guests loved everything and it showed! With our father's extensive experience and drive and our mother's personality and attention to service, the place was a success from day one. Both of us began working in the family restaurant at young ages. Over the years, our parents taught us the value of hard work and attention to quality in all aspects our family's restaurant.

Fast forward over two decades to present day, Mamma Mia Italian Restaurant, as we are now known, is currently a destination for locals and visitors alike. We have transformed from a small mom and pop pizza joint into a full-service Italian restaurant. Our entire staff is comprised of a team of knowledgeable and willing members ready to go above and beyond to make every guest feel like our best friends and family. Just as if you were sitting at our mother's table for lunch or Sunday dinner.

From our family to yours, welcome to Mamma Mia, mangia bene! (Eat well!)

— Romeo Pugliese, General Manager

— Angelo Pugliese, Executive Chef
